The group was welcomed by Dr. Lt. Amirthavalli, Head and Associate Professor of History at DKMC and President of the MHRD-IIC. Dr. C. Vinothini, Head of the Department of Physics, then introduced the chief guest, Mrs. Jayashree Narayanan, a Fevicryl Certified Specialist with the Fevicryl Company in Chennai. The complete programme was put up by Dr. N. Jabena Begum, Assistant Professor of Physics, co-ordinator of MIC Driven Activities.

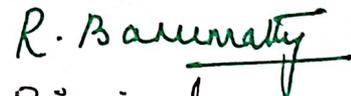

Mrs. Jayashree Narayanan, a Fevicryl Certified Specialist from the Fevicryl Business in Chennai, spoke on ENTREPRENEURSHIP DEVELOPMENT.

She has motivated the students to become an entrepreneur by highlighting the benefits of entrepreneur development that Entrepreneurs improve productivity and competitiveness, and they also develop new businesses and markets. They also provide employment opportunities. Entrepreneurs boost the country's economy. Entrepreneurs launch cutting-edge innovations.

Also, she has provided hands-on instruction in the tie-and-dye method for developing unique colouring patterns in textiles. Over 120 pupils took part in this programme and profited from it. All of the students are enthusiastic about creating new textile patterns and doing hand work. Finally students gave their feedback and the programme ended with National Anthem.
