Report
On National Youth Day
Date: 12.01.2024

Programme objectives:

- To encourage the students to aim higher and aspire in their life while adhering to the goals of Nation building and development.
- To support and enable the young people to have access to high quality education, creating a generation that is prepared to make significant contribution to the society.
- To increase awareness to the young minds regarding mental health.
- To promote Innovation and Entrepreneurship by Empowering the youth.

Programme outcomes:

- The youths recognized their role in shaping society and Nation.
- The programme has encouraged nurtured the potential inherent in every young individual.
- This has created an opportunity to the students to empower their own lives and they have understood how to make a positive impact in the world with that Empowerment.

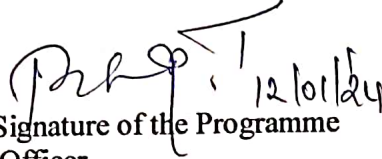

National Youth Day, also known as Swami Vivekananda Jayanti, is a celebration that resonates with the vigour, identify potential and create aspirations among the country's young population. The occasion not only commemorates the birth of this visionary figure but also serves as a platform to recognise the role and importance of the youth in shaping the nation's future.

D.KM College for Women (Autonomous), Vellore in association with MHRD-Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) and Youth Red Cross celebrated National Youth day on 12 January 2024 at 09.30 A.M. The programme started with Invocation. Dr. T. Bharathi, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce, D.K.M College for Women (Autonomous) gave welcome address and introduced the resource person to the audience. The resource person of the day was Dr.S.Thamaraiselvi, Assistant Professor of Tamil, D.KM College for Women (Autonomous), Vellore. She addressed the students on the theme: "Winners to lead and Losers to Guide". In her address she expressed that as a torchbearers of change, the youth play a pivotal role in shaping not only the economic landscape but also the socio-cultural fabric of the Nation. Their active involvement in community development, social justice, and environmental sustainability reflects a conscientious generation committed to creating a more equitable and inclusive society. The
