REPORT OF THE FILM FEST 2017-2018

The department of English in D.K.M College for Women organized a two-day film festival on 20.03.2018 – 21.03.2018. With an objective of sensitizing the teachers and the students with the dark history of Second World War, the film festival was themed on “The Holocaust”. The Inauguration of the festival began at 10.30AM with the lighting of the lamp and a prayer service. Prof.V.P. Gayathri, the head, the department of English welcomed the gathering, Dr.P.N. Sudha, the Principal of D.K.M College felicitated the event’s chief guest Prof. Dr.AmuthaArockia Mary, from Auxilium College a reputed figure in short film making. Dr.P.N. Sudha cut open the exhibition and visited the creative charts and models on the theme “The Holocaust”. Prof. Dr.AmuthaArockia Mary addressed the gathering on film making. She also distributed certificates and medals to the prize winners of various competitions conducted during the academic year 2017-2018.

The second session began with the screening of the movie “The Pianist” by Roman Polanski. To have a better understanding of the movie Prof.V.P.Gayathri, the Head, the department of English, Shift I gave a short introduction about the movie. Prof.Indra Gandhi proposed the vote of thanks and the programme drew to a close with the National Anthem.

On the second day of the film festival,the department screened two movies, Schindler’s List by Steven Spielberg and Life is Beautiful by Roberto Benigni. The students were completely into the mood of the Holocaust. This film festival organized by the department of English threw light on the dark realities of the Second World War. The second day drew to a close with the National Anthem.
