REPORT OF THE ASSOCIATION ACTIVITIES 2018- 2019

Competition is part of our life. It matters a lot. It makes people to laugh and cry. Competition educates us, persuades us and entertains us. It brings people together like scattered pieces of cloth stitched together to craft beautiful quilts. The Department of English has set the benchmark for conducting extracurricular activities in such a way that students not only enjoy but also learn a great deal from it. With the same perspective, the English department has organized various competitions like Painting, Essay writing, Calligraphy, Spot Talk and Poetry writing for the students of all the departments. The department believes that such types of competition would help in developing essential skills (LSRW) of the students and also go a long way to boost confidence of the students. Through these competitions, students had the opportunity to hone their language skills. All the competitions were supervised by Dr. M. Manimozhi, Asst. Professor of English, Department of English (Aided).
