The End

The Department of English under the guidance of the head, Ms. V.P. Gayathri organised a Film Festival on “Charlie Chaplin and The Silent Era” on 11.10.2019 in the Bhramaputra Hall.

Mrs.A. Mary Dayana Assistant Professor & Head, Department of Social Work, Chevalier T. Thomas Elizabeth College for women, Chennai, was the chief guest. The programme started with a prayer led by Mrs. Arivalaghi Assistant Professor of English. Dr. M. Manimozhi, Assistant Professor Of English welcomed the gathering and introduced the chief guest. Ms. V. P.Gayathri Head of the Department honoured the guest with a gift.

Mrs. A .Mary Dayana addressed the student about The Silent Era and Charlie Chaplin. She spoke about how the movies of the silent era were made and gave a biographical sketch of Charlie Chaplin highlighting his poverty ridden childhood and providing an insight into the comic genius of this legendary actor who served as an inspiration for countless actors in the successive generations. She also insisted that whenever one watches a movie they must be able to analyse it from a social, cultural and political angles. Mrs. Ramya , Assistant Professor, Department of English acted as the Master of Ceremony and Mrs. R. Sarathy, Assistant Professor, Department of English, proposed the vote of thanks. After the introductory lecture, movies were screened to the students so that they gained a first hand exposure to the movies of the silent era.
