

D. K. M College for Women (Autonomous), Vellore -1

PG and Research Department of History

Report on Freedom Struggle - Museum

(11.12.2021)

In commemoration of 75th Independence Day celebrations Suthanthira Thirunal Amutha Peruviza (STAP). On 11.12.2021, Museum on Freedom Struggle in India was conducted by the PG and Research Department of History.

The concept of the museum was to educate the students about the Indian Freedom Struggle Movement in India. To remind the students about our great Freedom fighters and how the people of entire India fought a lot to get freedom from the slavery of the British.

At 10.00 am the Museum was inaugurated by Dr.N.Nagarathinam, MSc., Ph.D., Head of the Department of Chemistry, Dr A . Amirthavalli, Head of the Department of History, welcome the Chiefgust, Dr. G.Vijayalakshmi, Assistant Professor of History, Mrs.S.Jayanthi, Assistant Professor of History, Mrs. M. Vanitha Assistant Professor of History, Dr. Zarina , Assistant Professor of History were present at the time of the inauguration.

The U G and PG student of the Departments were actively participated in the Museum. They did chart works, models and paintings.

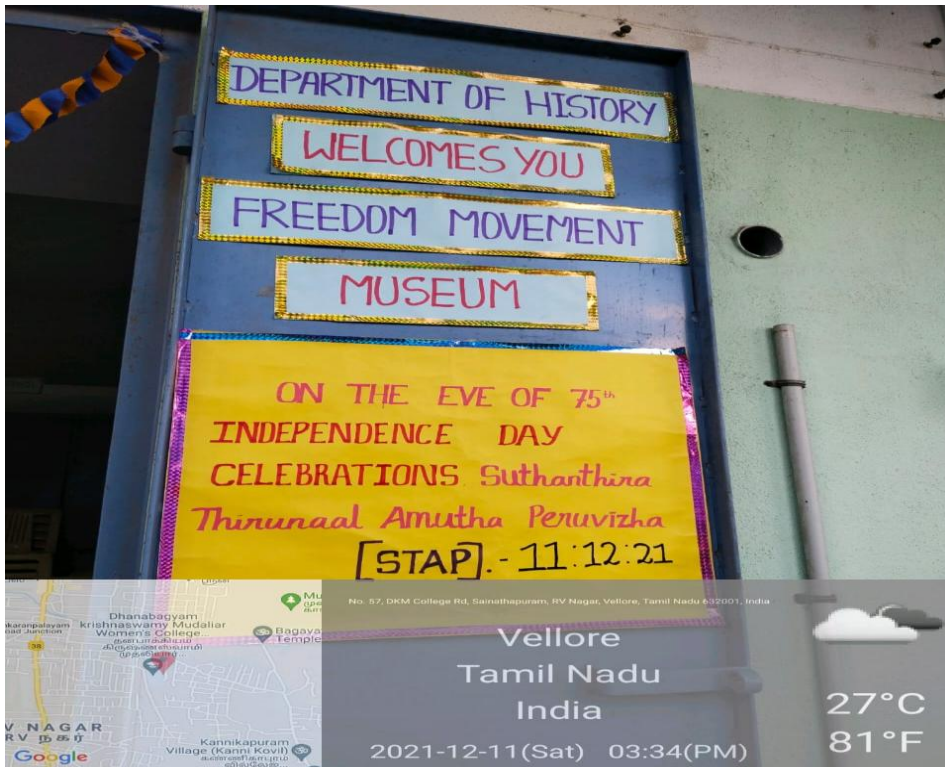

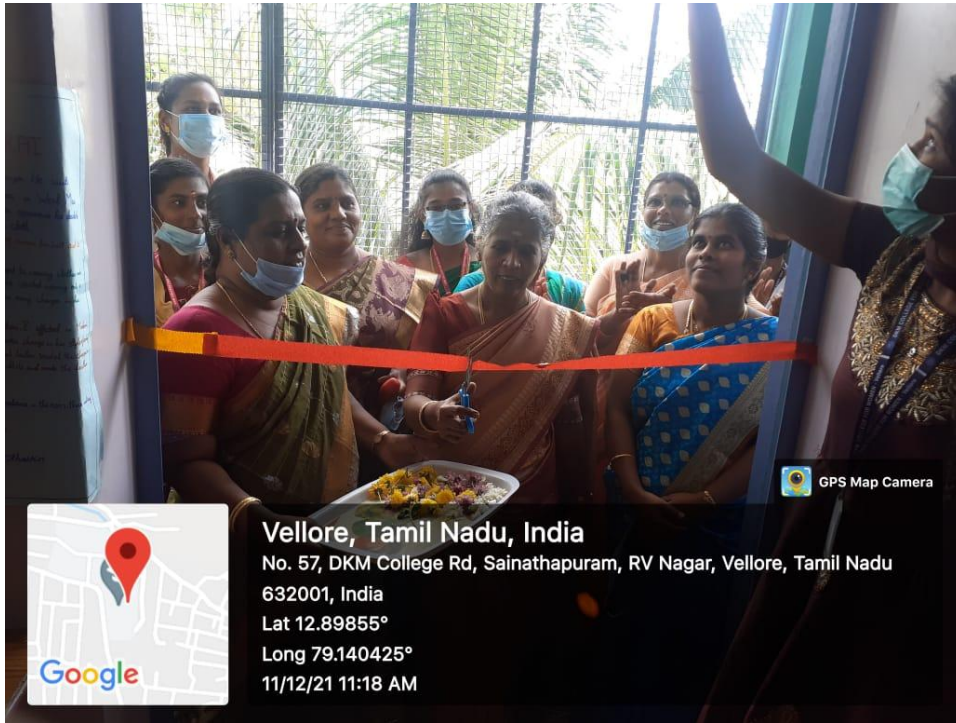

Various aspect of Freedom Struggle was portrayed. From 17th Century onwards Illustrations and Models of Freedom Fighters were displayed by the students of the Department of History they were as Velu Naichayar, Marudhu Brothers, Veerapandiya Kattabomman. These revolutionary leaders revolted even before The Great Vellore Mutiny of 1806 were also portayed by the students.

The Museum focused on the birth of Indian National Congress, Freedom struggle before the arrival of Gandhi and after his arrival. Each and every aspect of the Freedom Struggle was given important like Extremists, Moderates, Swadeshi Movement, Kalafat Movement, Jallawaliyan Wallabagh Tragedy, Quit India Movement, Indian Independent Act of 1947, Partition of India had been taking place.

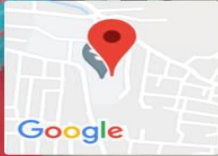

The Museum was visited by both Aided and Un Aided Department students respectively as per given schedule students were very much interested to visit the museum and gained knowledge about Freedom struggle. Faculty members also visited the museum.

Every aspect of Freedom Struggle had been clearly explained by the students was clearly explained by the students to the visitors. Freedom struggle in South India was also covered; various leaders' life history also took part in the museum.

Photo

Vellore, Tamil Nadu, India
No. 57, DKM College Rd, Sainathapuram, RV Nagar, Vellore,
Tamil Nadu 632001, India
Lat 12.898553°
Long 79.140428°
11/12/21 11:30 AM