Report for Literary Association

The Day began with lots of happiness, expectation and a hope of learning things. The Department of English as a team under the leadership of Ms. V.P. Gayathri, HOD organized a guest lecture on 03.03.2017. The Chief Guest Dr. Neena Mano, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Bharathi Women's College, Chennai was invited to deliver a lecture on the topic "Language and Literature: Interpretation to Communication".

The event was lead by Mrs.A. Annie, Assistant Professor by invoking the blessings of the Lord Almighty through silent prayer. Then all the guest were invited to light the lamp. Ms. V.P. Gayathri, Head, Department of English welcomed the gathering and the Chief Guest. Dr. P. N. Sudha, Principal, DKM College for Women, delivered the presidential address and wished that the event should go on well. Dr. M. Manimozhi, Assistant Professor and Ms. S. Monisha Guest lecturer acted as the masters of ceremony. A key feature of the event was the inauguration of the literary club "LETTERS" by Dr. Neena Mano and the Principal Dr.P.N. Sudha.

The Chief Guest Dr. Neena Mano was called to address the students. Mrs. Neena started her session on how to develop language skills on their own. Her speech was divided into three parts. In the first part, she focused on how to develop the LSRW skills. She also insisted on the importance of learning English Language on the daily basis. In the second part she distributed pictures to the students and she asked them to scrutinize the picture after which they were asked to speak about the picture. Then she compared the act of reading the picture to the act of reading a book viz., first one scans a book, then looks for a specific point and then critically analyzes it. This type of activities were done in language classroom to improve their memory skills. In the last part she covered the recent trends in literature with a special focus on postcolonial theory, binary oppositions and the Centre-Margin Dynamics.

Competitions were conducted related to Literary Association for which the Prizes and certificates were distributed to winners of various competitions like Essay Writing, Poetry Writing, Poster Presentation, Spell - Bee, Power Point Presentation, Literary Pageant and so on which were conducted as part of the activities of the English Association for the academic year 2016-2017. The prize distribution was followed by a student's cultural programme.

The programme came to an end with the vote of thanks proposed by Mrs. M. Gayathri Assistant Professor, Department of English, followed by the National Anthem.
