Report on Guest Lecture:

Department of English organized Guest Lecture on 08.09.2016. Dr. J. Karthigeyan, Assistant Professor of English, VIT College, Vellore, was invited by the Department of English to give a special lecture on the topic “English Language Teaching”. The session started by invoking blessings from God Almighty, prayer song was sung by D.Vanmathi III B.A., English. The session was held by Mrs. T.Paravathi, Assistant Professor of English.

The Chief Guest was welcomed by Mrs. S. Ramya, Assistant Professor of English and Felicited by Mrs. S. Indra Gandhi, Head Department of English.

Mr.Karthigevan was invited to give his lecture to the students. He started his sessions by telling about the importance of English Language and the need of it in society. He also gave advise on how to learn English in a better and easy way.

He also explained how many people feel English is hard and has a fear towards it. He then advised few ways in which we can overcome these fears. There many institutions which are ready enough to offer spoken English class for free. It has become mandatory now a days that where ever we go people expect that we need to speak English fluently, so he advised students to learn English without fail. Then he gave few brainstorming activities which made students more active.

The programmer came to an end by asking verbal feedback from the students. Then Mrs.S. Sasikala Assistant Professor proposed the vote of thanks.
