

D.K.M. COLLEGE FOR WOMEN
(AUTONOMOUS)
Affiliated to Thiruvalluvar University
Sainathapuram, Vellore – 632 001
Website: www.dkmcollege.ac.in

ADMISSION POLICY

DKM College is determined to maintain transparency in students admission to programs through a well-defined admission policy ensuring equity and access to eligible applicants seeking admission.

Policy and Guidelines:

Our college is committed to adhere strictly regulations and guidelines for admission issued by the THIRUVALLUAR UNIVERSITY and DCE, GOVERNMENT OF TAMILNADU.

The admission committee is headed by the principal with four senior most faculty members out of which one member shall be representative of SC/ST community.

The college shall invite application for admission after ensuring that the relevant information about programs offered, eligibility criteria, fees, procedures etc are published in college website and prospectus.

DKM college shall strictly follow the rules of reservations stipulated by the GOVERNMENT OF TAMILNADU in admission.

Candidates seeking admission for various programs conducted by the college may send their applications either online or offline mode along with enclosures of marks statements, community and other certificates for special quota.

The criteria for admission to any program shall be based on merit and rules of reservation. The list of candidates selected for admission shall be notified in the college notice board and also individually intimated through post and SMS.

The Principal shall issue provisional admission card to the selected candidates. In case of non-admission of selected candidates, wait listed candidates shall be allowed to join, keeping in mind the rule of reservations.

The entire admission process is subject to the scrutiny of RJD Office of our region.