D. K. M. COLLEGE FOR WOMEN (AUTONOMOUS), VELLORE – 1
Staff Development Committee
A Report on
Faculty Development Programme

Date:18.9.2021

Staff development committee initiated in organizing Faculty Development Programme through google meet, exclusively to the faculties of DKMC.

Beyond academics, as the need of hour is perpetuating physical standard of life, Staff Development Committee invited experts in two different fields of Medicine. As per the schedule, programme started at 9.30 admitting participants on time into the meeting link- <https://meet.google.com/gby-zish-pyo>.

Session-I

Programme inaugurated with silent prayer followed by Welcome address by Dr.R.Banumathy, Head and Associate Professor of Economics. Session 1* Chief guest was Dr. Sumithalakahmi .B ,Gynecologist , Sakthi balaji clinic ,Thorapadi, Vellore consented to be the Guest of honor and she get off the ground on the topic Menopause – Myths And Realities: Prevention Is Better Than Cure. Our beloved Principal Dr. P. N. Sudha mam gave Felicitation before the session begins.

A comprehensible lecture on the topic gripping the day and faculties were able to relate on and off symptoms of menstruation and menopause. Since Menopause is a nightmare to every woman, it was an alert to all of us to face the challenge of stage with do's and don'ts by following healthy diet and apt exercise. Towards the end of Session-I, interactive session shot queries with an instant response from the Doctor. On behalf of DKMC and Staff development committee, Dr. G. Sujatha, Head and Assistant Professor of Tamil delivered a vote of thanks to Dr. Sumithalakahmi .B.

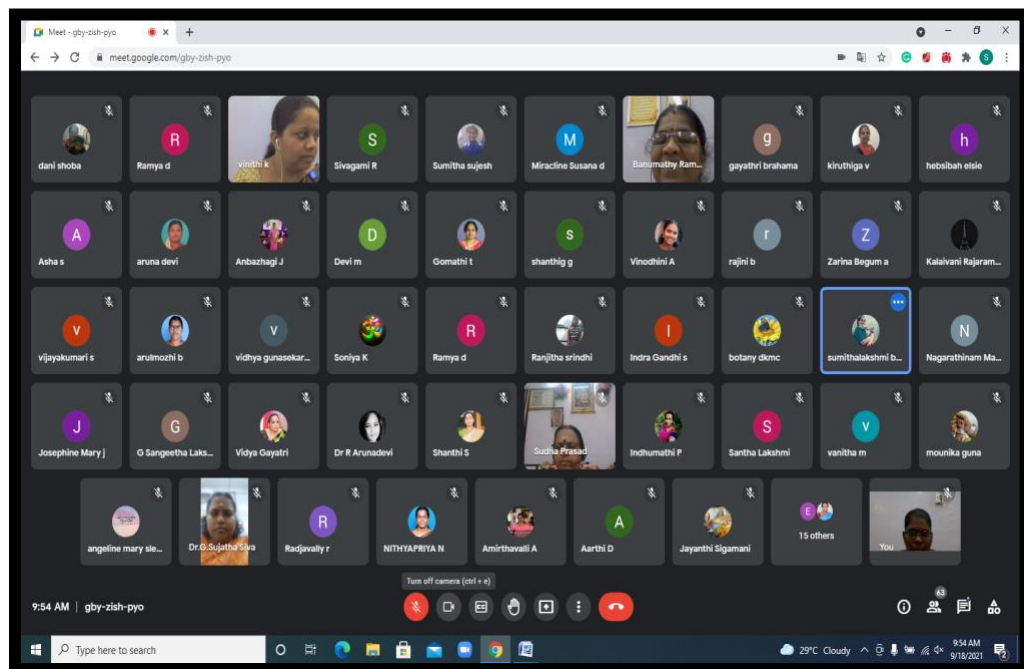

Session-II

After a short break, faculties expected to rejoin the meeting with the same given link. Dr. R. Banumathy, Head and Associate Professor of Economics invited the Session-II Chief guest Dr. P. Sivaji Rao MBBS,DPM, District Psychiatrist Vellore, District Mental Health Programme , Walaja Head Quarters Government Hospital, Vellore. Topic: 'Parenting style and coping with adolescent behaviour problems'.

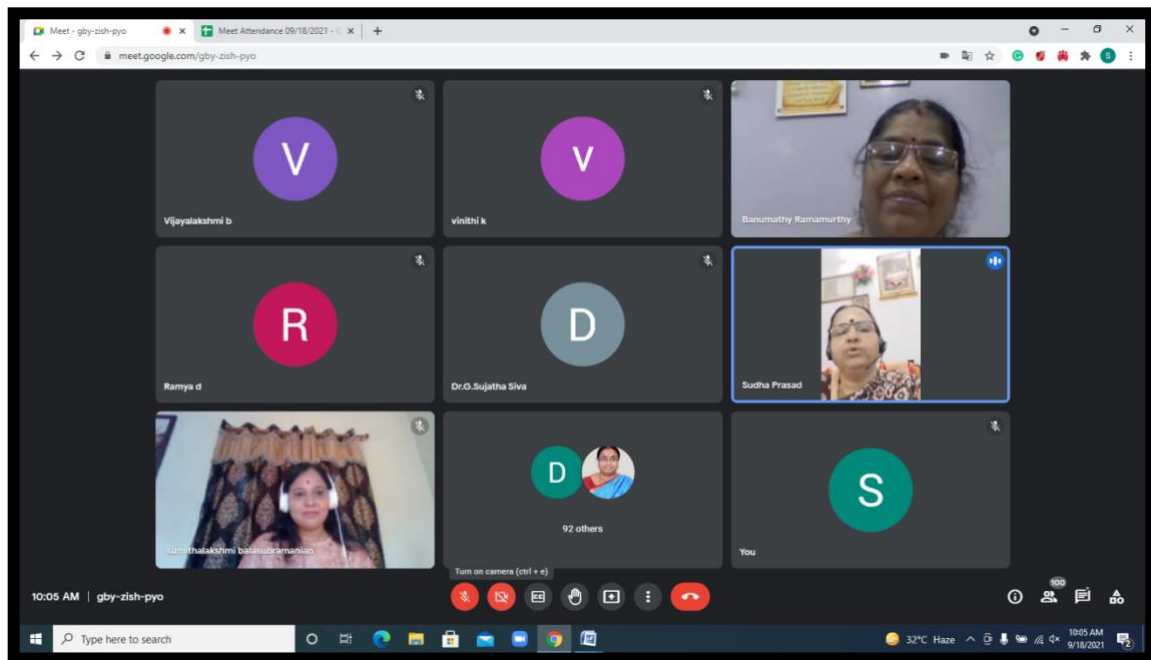

Doctor initiated his lecture with few stories concentrating on importance of Parenting. Highlighting of all, more examples quoted to each stages of parenting and bilingual approach of language was communicative to everyone. Faculties were able to correlate parenting stages and growth of children simultaneously, as the solution of the problem is with the parent and not on child. Approaching every adult with positive tendency might resolve a happy adolescence than a nightmare to parents. His recommendations to relocate from digitalize life to natural might activate happy parenting to their adult children. His approach on adolescence and behavioural psychology was like forewarning for future adolescence stage. Beyond all, Parents are exemplary force to every child during all stages of life. Meeting came down to an interactive session and queries were responded with motivating answers from the Doctor. At the end of the programme, Mrs. D. Ramya, Assistant professor of English proposed a vote of Thanks to the chief guest.

On behalf of DKMC and Staff Development committee Dr. R. Banumathy delivered a formal vote of thanks to all the participants .
