ON EXTENSION ACTIVITY
2022-23

Report

Department of Commerce felt the need to provide a chance to the students to know the social problems hence, took efforts to organize this extension activity. We sensitize our students into developing social values, widen their responsibility and provide practical knowledge in social issues and problems by making them to work with people of the community. All the staff members of Commerce Department took all effort to gather the students helped in the smooth conduct of the program.

The extension activity was undertaken on 18.04.23 at 9.30 a.m at Sekkanur Village, 74 final year students of Department of Commerce volunteered to visit the Sekkanur Village. Students who volunteered for the visit made a thorough preparation to make their visit a useful one hence, planned various activities which includes talk by Dr. T.Bharathi, Assistant Professor of Commerce on both the themes, 2 skits were performed by students in Tamil language, so that the people of the village would understand better. Two students gave talk on the theme in Tamil language, Students involved people of the village in a game activity. It was indeed a very meaningful effort taken by the faculty and students of Department of Commerce with regard to social cause which concluded at 1.00 pm.
